Our week started with the dreaded 'Yellow Peril' plus the next best two scores to count. It wasn't that dreaded though for Pete Dunn, Petina Murray, Paul Brown and Albert as they managed to rack up 152 points and claim 1st place.

Wednesday and it was the much anticipated President's (Dave Pulling) 14 versus the Secretary's (Olga Douglas) 14 in singles match-play. Resplendent in our pink attire (or red or any other colour if you don't read Facebook) it was the Secretary's team who took the day with an overwhelming win of 10 matches to 4. Some notable results were Lindsay Forbes (for the President's) beating Benedicte Kruse 7&5 and Jan Svendsen (for the Secretary's) overcoming Mike Chapman 4&3. (Oh all right then I won my game 3&2 against Alan Carter). A great day's fun and welcomed by everyone, added to which we raised just short of 200 Euro for cancer research. There was still a '2's pot on the day with Benedicte managing to be the sole winner.

Friday's '2 Ball Better Ball' saw Nick Campbell and Reg Akehurst win by a country mile with a score of 46 points. A mention here must go to John Drakesmith's very strong shoulders as he had the misfortune of drawing me as his playing partner.

Por ultimo (and just for Terry Field) Henry Beard once said, 'Play it as it lies is one of the fundamental dictates of golf. The other is wear it if it clashes'.

Pues hasta la semana que viene
