Monday's counter game was the version that you didn't know how many scores were to count until after the hole had been played. It was a family affair as the winning team, with 94 points, was comprised of Nora Betts and Pat Cassidy together with Nick Campbell and Reg Akehurst.

It was round two (with the best 4 cards out of 6 to count) of our Society's annual Stableford Championship on Wednesday. Staking his place amongst the runners and riders in the men's section was Reg Akehurst with 36 points whilst Petina Murray moved up the lady's leader board also with 36. Just two

'2's today one of which was me! The other one went to Ken Robertson.

You might be pleased to learn that I have now joined the Torrevieja Digital Camera Club, so you never know, the quality of the photographs may (or may not) start to improve. Who needs 'Portrait artist of the year)?

'Relatively' speaking it was a good win for John Shervell and his brother Peter in Friday's 'Texas Scramble'. Alongside

Ken and Liz Robertson they managed a nett score of 62. Not far behind them, with a score of 63.2, were myself, Trevor Pullyblank and John & Ellen Drakesmith. A special mention here to Ellen's putting which led to us winning the grand total of 6 euros each!

Our words of wisdom this week come from Bob Bruce who once remarked, 'You know you're on the Senior Tour when your back goes out more often than you do'.

Pues hasta la semana que viene
